Baby Show Information

- Judging: Judges for the Photo Show are professional photographers. It is for this reason we do not allow snapshots. Judges for the Baby Show are professionals who are used to dealing with children, such as teachers, caretakers, and parents. During the baby show, judges will talk to the children and ask them questions to see their personalities. Talent is permitted but NOT required.
- Appearance: Part of the Baby Show judging is based on appearance. It is for this reason we want you to dress your child nicely. The outfit does not need to be expensive or a frilly dress for a girl or a suit for a boy. Use your best judgment in choosing an outfit that will complement your child's personality.
- Registration: All entries must be made before the show. However, you must register when you get to the high school to receive a number for your child and to let us know you are there. If you have not filled out an entry and paid the entry fee, your child cannot compete. The entry deadline is Wednesday, September 19, 2018. All entries are to be made at the Corn Festival office, located at 909 N. Liberty Street. Mail in or electronic entries are not accepted.
- Photo Guidelines: The only size photos that will be accepted are 8" x 10". We do not accept photographs in frames or snapshots. Snapshots cannot be competitive with the professional photographs we receive. There should not be any other children in the photograph. Since we are judging the child only, the photo should be of the child only.
- Twins/Triplets: Twins and/or triplets should all be in the same photograph. We will judge the multiples together unless we have a large entry. If so, we will judge in 2 groups as follows: 6-24 months and 2-5 years. This applies to the Baby Show as well as the Photo Show.
- Show Length: Judging is held as close to the specified time as possible. You may have to wait a few minutes for your group to start, but please be patient with us. We want to give each child the same amount of attention. Prizes are awarded at the end of each group judging. That group will then be allowed to leave the show.

ALL WINNERS OF BOTH SHOWS ARE INVITED TO WALK IN THE CORN FESTIVAL PARADE ON SUNDAY September 30th. PLEASE CHECK IN AT THE CHECK IN BOOTH ON SUNDAY FOR LINE UP INFORMATION. (WAGONS AND STROLLERS ARE PERMITTED. NO MOTORIZED VEHICLES FOR THIS ENTRY)

If you have any other questions, please call Roberta at the Corn Festival office at 942-2676 or contact us at assistant@cornfestival.org.
